KEYSTONE FAMILY HOUSING PARTNERS

Every family, a home to build on

A home to build on

Keystone Family Housing Partners helps families move from homelessness into permanent housing and supports their next steps toward stability.

24
participants

20
answered both surveys

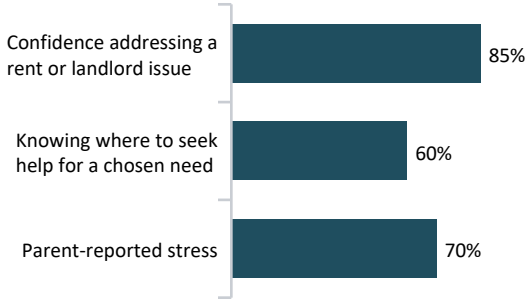

85%
improved in housing-issue confidence

100%
reported children under 18 at home

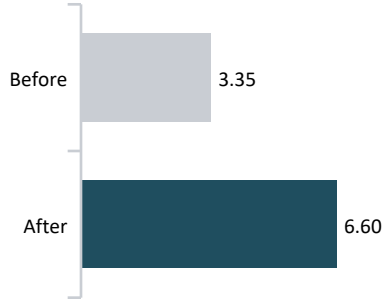

THE CHANGE WE SEE

Among participants who answered both surveys, many reported improvement in confidence addressing rent or landlord issues, knowing where to seek help, and parent-reported stress. These short-term survey results are encouraging, but they do not establish long-term housing stability; continued follow-up can help Keystone understand what happens after move-in and time-limited assistance.

Share of participants who improved

Confidence addressing a rent or landlord issue

> “It's still hard some months but I know who to call now.”
>
> — A program participant

Support time-limited rent assistance, move-in essentials, individualized case management, and stronger outcome follow-up.

keystonefamilyhousing.example.org

Participant information is reported only in totals; groups under 5 people are not shown. Built with Through Line.